

The Business Transfer Pathway Associate of Science is designed for students who are interested in transferring after graduation to pursue a Bachelor's degree or a professional degree in business, management, marketing, education, or training.

- Use quantitative analysis of financial information and accounting concepts to interpret information.

Personal and Social Responsibility and Engagement, focused by:

- Identify and appreciate differences in personality, differences in communication styles and diversity in general and demonstrate behavior that respects those differences.

Integrative and Applied Learning, including:

- Develop a managerial strategic plan that includes critical elements of planning, organizing, leading, and controlling.
- Illustrate the marketing concept through a business plan

Knowledge of Human Cultures and the Physical and Natural World, focused by:

Intellectual and Practical Skills, focused by:

